

Page 1 - Navigation timing

The sunrise maintenance window begins at 05:40. Navigation timing changes require a signed update from the mission planner. This page intentionally contains no optical calibration assignment.

Page 2 - Optical calibration

Optical calibration is led by the navigation engineer at 14:20 each Thursday. The flight director approves only the completed calibration record after the navigation engineer records the result.